 - (f) any other matter which may be prescribed.
- (2) Except with the permission of the Registrar or the nominee, no party shall be represented at the hearing of a dispute by a legal practitioner.
- (3) (a) If the Registrar or the nominee is satisfied that any person, whether he is a subscriber or not, has acquired any interest in the property of a person who is a party to a dispute, he may order that the person who has acquired the interest in the property may be joined as a party to the dispute, and any decision that may be given by the Registrar or the nominee on the dispute shall be binding on the party so joined, in the same manner as if he were an original party to the dispute.
- (b) Where a dispute has been referred in the name of a wrong person, or where all the necessary parties have not been included, the Registrar or the nominee may, if he is satisfied that it was due to a genuine mistake, order any other person to be substituted or added as parties to the dispute at any stage of hearing of the dispute on such terms as he thinks just.
- (c) The Registrar or the nominee may, at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party and on such terms as may appear to the Registrar or the nominee to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined be struck off.
- (d) Any person who is a party to the dispute and entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action may claim all or any such reliefs, but if he omits to claim any such relief, he shall not be entitled to claim that relief, except with the leave of the Registrar or the nominee.

68. Attachment before Judgment and other interlocutory orders.—(1) Where a dispute has been referred under Section 64 and the Registrar or the nominee hearing the dispute is satisfied on enquiry or otherwise that a party to such dispute, with intent to defeat or obstruct the execution of any award or the carrying out of any order that may be made,—

- (a) is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property; or
- (b) is about to remove the whole or any part of the property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar, he may, unless adequate security is furnished, direct conditional attachment of the said property, and such attachment shall have the same effect as if it is made by a competent Civil Court.

(2) Where the Registrar or the nominee directs the attachment of any property under sub-section (1), he shall issue a notice calling upon the person whose property is so attached to furnish such security as he thinks adequate within a specified period, and if the person fails to provide such security, the Registrar or the nominee may confirm the order and may, after the decision in the dispute, direct the disposal of the property so attached towards the claim, if awarded.

(3) Any attachment made under this section shall not affect the rights, subsisting prior to the attachment of the property, of persons who are not parties to the dispute, or bar any person holding a decree against the person whose property is so attached from applying for the sale of the property under the attachment of such decree.

(4) The Registrar or the nominee may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory orders pending the award in a dispute referred to in sub-section (1) as may appear to be just and convenient.

69. Decision of Registrar or nominee.—When a dispute is referred to arbitration under this Chapter, the Registrar or the nominee, may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the parties to the dispute to be heard, make an award on the dispute, on the expenses incurred by the parties to the dispute in connection with the proceedings and the fees and expenses payable to the Registrar or the nominee, and such an award shall not be invalid merely on the ground that it was made after the expiry of the period, if any, fixed for deciding the dispute by the Registrar, and shall, subject to appeal under Section 70, be final and binding on the parties to the dispute.

70. Appeal against decision of Registrar or nominee.—Any party aggrieved by any order passed by the Registrar or the nominee or the award of the Registrar or the nominee under Section 69, may, within two months from the date of the order or award, appeal to the State Government.

71. Money how recovered.—Every order passed by the Registrar or the nominee under Section 68 or Section 69 and every order passed by the State Government in appeal under Section 70 for payment of any money shall, if not carried out,—

- (a) on a certificate issued by the Registrar, be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court, and shall be executed in the same manner as a decree of such Court, or
 - (b) be executed in accordance with the provisions of any law for the time being in force for the recovery of amounts as arrears of land revenue;
- Provided that no application for execution under clause (b) shall be made after the expiry of three years from the date fixed in the order, and if no such date is fixed, from the date of the order.

72. Private transfer of property made after issue of certificate void against foreman.—Any private transfer of delivery of, or encumbrance or charge on, property made or created after the issue of the certificate by the Registrar under Section 71 shall be null and void against the foreman on whose application the said certificate was issued.

CHAPTER XIII

74. Appeals.—(1) Any foreman aggrieved by the decision of the Registrar,

- (a) refusing to register the chit agreement under Section 7 ;
 (b) refusing to grant a certificate of commencement under sub-section (2) of Section 9 ;
 (c) refusing to accept any security under sub-section (1) of Section 20 or under Section 31 ; or
 (d) refusing to release the security charged under Section 20 or Section 31, may, within thirty days of the communication to him of such decision, appeal to the State Government or to such officer or authority as may be empowered by notification in the Official Gazette by the State Government in that behalf.

(2) Any foreman or other person aggrieved by the order of the Registrar under sub-section (1) of Section 34 may, within thirty days of the communication to him of such decision, appeal to the State Government or to such officer or authority as may be empowered by notification in the Official Gazette by the State Government in that behalf.

(3) The State Government or such officer or authority aforesaid may, after giving the appellant an opportunity of making his representation, pass such order on the appeal as it or he thinks fit and such order shall be final.

NOTES

Appeal and revision : Distinction.—There is an essential distinction between an appeal and a revision. The distinction is based on difference implicit in the said two expressions. An appeal is a continuation of the proceedings : in effect the entire proceedings are before the appellate authority and it has power to review the evidence subject to the statutory limitations prescribed. But in the case of a revision, whatever powers the revisional authority may or may not have, it has not the power to review the evidence unless the statute expressly confers on it that power. That limitation is implicit in the concept of revision. State of Kerala v. K.M. Charita Abdulla, (1965) 1 SCR 601 : AIR 1965 SC 1585 : (1965) 2 SCJ 461 : (1965) 1 SCWR 680 : (1965) 16 STC 875 : (1965) 2 ITJ 351 : 1965 Ker LJ 907 : 1965 Ker LT 51.

Question of fact and law.—Inferences from facts may themselves be inferences of facts and not of law, and that such inferences are not open to review by the Court. The inference from fact would be a question of fact or of law according as the point for determination is one of pure fact or mixed question of fact and law.

A finding on a question of fact is open to attack as erroneous in law only if it is not supported by any evidence, or if it is unreasonable and perverse, but that where there is evidence to consider, the decision of the Tribunal is final even though the Court might not, on the materials, have come to the same conclusion if it had the power to substitute its own judgment.

The position that emerges on the authorities may be summed up :

- (1) When the point for determination is a pure question of law such as construction of a statute or document of title, the decision of the Tribunal is open to reference to the Court under Section 66 (1).
 (2) When the point for determination is a mixed question of fact and law, while the finding of the Tribunal on the facts found is final its decision as to the legal effect of those findings is a question of law which can be reviewed by the Court.
 (3) A finding on a question of fact is open to attack under Section 66 (1) as erroneous in law when there is no evidence to support it or if it is perverse.

(4) When the finding is one of fact, the fact that it is itself an inference from other basic facts will not alter its character as one of fact. Menakshi Mills Ltd. v. Commissioner of Income Tax, Madras, 1956 SCR 691 : AIR 1957 SC 49 : 1957 SCJ 1 : 1956 SCA 1139 : (1957) 31 ITR 28 : 1957 Mad LJ (SC) 1 : (1957) 1 Andh WR (SC) 1.

75. Powers of Registrar to give extension of time for filing documents.—The Registrar may, in his discretion and upon an application in writing by a foreman made within the period specified for the filing of documents, under sub-section (3) of Section 28, sub-section (2) of Section 29, Section 37 or Section 41, allow the foreman further time not exceeding fifteen days to file copies of such documents.

76. Penalties.—(1) Whoever contravenes or abets the contravention of any of the provisions of Sections 4, 5, 8, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 19, 20, 22, 24, 30, 31, sub-section (4) of Section 33, Sections 46, 47 or sub-section (5) of Section 61 shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both.

(2) Any foreman,—

- (a) who fails to file any document required to be filed under this Act within the period specified therefor or within such further time as may be allowed ; or
 (b) who fails to comply with the requirements of the chit agreement regarding the date, time and place at which the chit is to be drawn or who fails to comply with the requirements of any direction given under sub-section (3) of Section 38 ; or
 (c) who contravenes or fails to comply with any other requirement under this Act, shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to three thousand rupees.

(3) Whoever wilfully makes a statement in any document required to be filed under this Act which is false in any material particular shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both.

77. Penalty for second and subsequent convictions.—If any person convicted of an offence under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3) of Section 76 is again convicted of an offence under any of the said sub-section he shall be punishable for the second and for every subsequent offence with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to fine.

78. Application of fine.—A court imposing any fine under this Act may direct that the whole or any part thereof shall be applied in, or towards payment of, the cost of the proceedings.

79. Offences by companies.—(1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Act, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to, any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section,—

- (a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals ; and
 (b) "director" in relation to a firm means a partner in the firm.

NOTES

Offences by companies.—Natural persons are made vicariously liable for an offence when it is established that the offence was committed by a company and these persons had some means with the crime either because of their connivance with or due to their criminal negligence which had resulted in its commission—Municipal Corporation, Delhi v. Bhagwan Dass, 1972 Cri LJ 1433 ; See also Municipal Corporation, Delhi v. Deepak Kumar, 1974 FAC 496.

Every person in charge of conducting the affairs of the company at the time the offence under Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954, was committed will be liable and it is not incumbent that the company and the partners should be prosecuted as a condition precedent to the prosecution of the person in charge—Public Prosecutor v. Boggarapu Pullaiah, 1974 Cri LJ 155. A different view was taken by the Madras High Court in B.K. Verma v. Corporation of Madras, AIR 1971 Mad 40 : 1971 Cri LJ 60.

Where a company has been acquitted whatever the reasons for the acquittal may be, it is not possible to deem any person to be guilty of the offence because of his being in charge of the business of the company—Municipal Corporation, Delhi v. Krishan Chand, 1975 FAC 347.

80. Cognizance of offences.—(1) All offences under Section 11 shall be cognizable.

(2) No court inferior to that of a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try an offence punishable under this Act.

81. Power to compound offences.—(1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, any officer empowered by the State Government in this behalf may, either before or after the institution of criminal proceedings under this Act, accept from the person who has committed or is reasonably suspected to have committed an offence under this Act, by way of composition of such offence, a sum of money not exceeding such amount as may be prescribed.

(2) Where an offence has been compounded under sub-section (1), the offender, if in custody, shall be discharged and no further proceedings shall be taken against him in respect of such offence.

82. Power to enter and search any place and to seize any documents.—(1) If the Registrar or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf, has reason to suspect that any person conducts, or is responsible for the conduct of, a chit in any place in contravention of the provisions of this Act, he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and at any reasonable time, enter into and search such place, and may seize such books, registers, accounts or documents as may be necessary.

(2) The Registrar or officer authorised by him in this behalf, may apply for assistance to an officer in charge of a police station and take police officers to accompany and assist him in discharging his duties under sub-section (1).

(3) All searches under sub-section (1) shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

83. Officers to be public servants.—The Registrar and all officers appointed by the State Government to perform any functions under this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (45 of 1850).

NOTES

Public servant.—A person in actual possession of the situation of a public servant is a "public servant" notwithstanding the defect in his right to hold that situation. Bajranglal v. State, (1976) 2 SCC 217 : 1976 SCC (Cri) 272 ; G.A. Monterio v. State, AIR 1957 SC 13.

Any person who was not a public servant appointed as a Chairman of the Committee may not be a public servant because the office of the Chairman of the Advisory Committee is not such that would make him a public servant. But the matter is different when a public servant, under the executive instructions of the Government, is appointed the Chairman of the Committee. Dattatraya Narayanan Patil v. State of Maharashtra, (1976) 1 SCC 11, 14 : 1975 SCC (Cri) 733.

Under Clause 12 of Section 21, I.P.C., an officer in the service of pay of the Government or of a local authority or a corporation established or owned by Government is liable as a public servant. The tests are : (1) whether he is in the service or pay of the Corporation ; (2) whether he is himself armed with some authority or representative character by the Corporation or whether his duties are immediately auxiliary to those of someone who is armed with such authority of representative character. Akhtar Alam v. State of Bihar, (1969) 1 SCC 142.

84. Power to delegate.—The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any power (other than the power to hear appeals or to make rules) exercisable by it under this Act or the rules made thereunder may be exercised also by any officer of the State Government subject to such terms and conditions, if any, as may be specified therein.

85. Act not to apply to certain chits.—Nothing in this Act shall apply in respect of—

- (a) any chit started before the commencement of this Act, or
 (b) any chit the amount of which, or where two or more chits were started or conducted simultaneously by the same foreman, the aggregate amount of which does not exceed one hundred rupees.

86. Banks not to conduct chit business.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, no bank shall commence or carry on chit business after the commencement of this Act.

(2) Where a chit had been started by any bank before such commencement, such chit may be continued after such commencement until it is completed, and the provisions of the chit agreement and such laws, if any, as were applicable to it immediately before the commencement of this Act shall apply to such chit.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section "bank" means an approved bank or a co-operative bank as defined in clause (bii) of Section 2 of the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934).

87. Power to exempt.—The State Government may, in consultation with the Reserve Bank, by notification in the Official Gazette, and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the notification, exempt any person or class of persons or any chit or class of chits from all or any of the provisions of this Act.

88. Protection of action taken under the Act.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the State Government ; the Registrar or other officers of the State Government or of the Reserve Bank or any of its officers exercising any powers or discharging any functions under this Act in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or the rules made thereunder.

NOTES

Good faith defined.—The words "good faith" are not defined in the Act. They are, however, defined in other Acts.

Nothing is said to be done or believed in good faith which is done or believed without due care and attention—Section 52 of the I.P.C.

A thing shall be deemed to be done in good faith where it is done honestly, whether it is done negligently or not—Section 3 (22) of the General Clauses Act, 1897.

Nothing shall be deemed to be done in good faith which is not done with due care and attention—Section 2 (7) of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908.

Good faith in criminal law is different from good faith as understood in civil law. If an act is not done with due care and attention, it cannot so far as criminal law is concerned be said to be done in good faith—Pagla Baba v. State, AIR 1957 Ori 130 : 1957 Cr LJ 769.

Nothing can be said to have been done in good faith when it is done without due care and caution—Public Prosecutor v. Rajammal, 12 Cri LJ 566 : 12 IC 654.

"Good faith" requires not, indeed, logical infallibility but due care and attention. But how far erroneous actions or statements are to be imputed to want of due care and caution must, in each case, be considered with reference to the general circumstances and the capacity and intelligence of the person whose conduct is in question. It is only to be expected that honest conclusions of a calm and philosophical mind may differ very largely from the honest conclusions of a person excited by sectarian zeal and untrained to habits of precise reasoning—Emperor v. Abdool Wadood Ahmed, ILR 31 Bom 293, 298.

89. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, in consultation with the Reserve Bank, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) the form and manner in which an application for obtaining the previous sanction may be made under sub-section (2) of Section 4;
- (b) the additional particulars that a chit agreement may contain under clause (q) of sub-section (1) of Section 6 ;
- (c) the particulars that may be included in the minutes of the proceedings of a draw under Section 17 ;
- (d) the method of valuation by the Registrar in a grain chit for the purpose of furnishing security under Section 20 ;
- (e) the procedure that may be followed by the Registrar in releasing the security furnished by the foreman under Section 20 ;
- (f) the registers and books and the form in which such registers and books may be maintained by the foreman under Section 23 ;
- (g) the time within which the balance-sheet and the profit and loss account in respect of a chit business shall be filed under Section 24 ;
- (h) the rate at which interest shall be payable on the defaulted instalments by a defaulted subscriber under Section 28 ;
- (i) the particulars that may be included in an application for the winding up of chits under Section 49 ;
- (j) the procedure to be followed for the winding up of chits under Chapter X ;

- (k) the fees payable under Section 63 ;
- (l) the auditing of balance-sheets and the profit and loss accounts of chit business and the issue of audit certificates ;
- (m) the form and manner in which a dispute shall be referred to the Registrar under Section 64 ;
- (n) the procedure to be followed by the Registrar or his nominee for settling the disputes referred to him under Section 64 ;
- (o) the matters referred to in clause (f) of sub-section (1) of Section 67 ;
- (p) the conditions subject to which and the amount on the payment of which composition of offences may be made under Section 81 ;
- (q) the form and manner in which an appeal may be preferred under this Act and the fees payable for such appeal ;
- (r) the issue and service of notices or other process under this Act ;
- (s) the procedure for, and the manner of, receiving any sum payable under this Act ;
- (t) any other matter which is required to be or may be prescribed.

(3) Every rule made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of the State Legislature where it consists of two Houses, or, where such Legislature consists of one House before that House.

NOTES

Failure to place rules before Houses of Parliament : Effect.—In Jan Mohammad v. State of Gujarat, AIR 1966 SC 385, the validity of rules framed under the Bombay Act 22 of 1939 was challenged on ground that the rules framed under the Act were not placed before the Legislative Assembly at the first session and therefore they had no legal validity. It was provided in that Act that the rules framed under the Act should be laid before each of the Houses at the session thereof next following. The Supreme Court held that the rules were valid from the date on which they were made and failure to place the rules before the Houses of Legislature did not affect the validity of the rules. In Hukum Chand v. Union of India, AIR 1972 SC 2427, it was laid down that the act of the Central Government in laying the rules before each House of Parliament would not prevent the courts from scrutinizing the validity of the rules and holding them to be ultra vires if on such scrutiny the rules are found to be beyond the rule-making power of the Central Government.

90. Repeal and saving.—(1) The Andhra Pradesh Chit Funds Act, 1971 (Andhra Pradesh Act 9 of 1971), the Kerala Chitties Act, 1975 (Kerala Act 23 of 1975), the Maharashtra Chit Funds Act, 1974 (Maharashtra Act LV of 1974), the Tamil Nadu Chit Funds Act, 1961 (Tamil Nadu Act 24 of 1961), as in force in the State of Tamil Nadu and in the Union territories of Chandigarh and Delhi, the Uttar Pradesh Chit Funds Act, 1975 (Uttar Pradesh Act 53 of 1975), the Goa, Daman and Diu Chit Funds Act, 1973 (Goa, Daman and Diu Act 16 of 1973), and the Pondicherry Chit Funds Act, 1966 (Pondicherry Act 18 of 1966), are hereby repealed and the provisions of Section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), shall apply to such repeal as if each such Act so repealed were a Central Act.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, the Acts mentioned in sub-section (1) shall continue to apply to chits in operation on the commencement of this Act, in the same manner as they applied to such chits before such commencement.
